Though the Gram Control orders at (P) (N) and (E) were not specifically extended to these merged states specifically as the two orders at (P) & (N) were issued only after the merger of these ~~the~~ states, these control orders automatically apply to them also. But the Control order at (E) "Ban on the transport of gram and its products outside Madras Province except under permit" does not seem to apply to Sandur as at the time of the issue of the notification Sandur was outside Madras state. It is perhaps necessary ~~Hence a notification~~ extending this order to Sandur ~~to be issued separately~~. The Bd may be asked to send suitable draft notification ~~it is not necessary to extend this Control order to Sandur State also, and if so it may be asked to submit necessary notification extending this Control to Sandur also.~~ Pub(Pol) & Legal may see after obtaining the opinion of Public(Pol) and Legal matter as to whether it is essential to issue separate notifications extending gram Control orders to the merged States in the circumstances explained above.

Please see the notes of Food and Agriculture Dept on page 1 ante. The Control Order at (E) "Ban on the transport of gram and its products outside Madras Province except under permit" will not apply to Sandur as at the time of the issue of the notification Sandur was outside Madras State. It seems therefore necessary to issue a separate notification extending this order to Sandur. The file may be passed on to Legal.

Notes from PP 1-2 ante may kindly be perused. Pub(Pol) and Legal departments are of the view that it is necessary to extend the Control order at (E) separately to Sandur, now ~~As already advised vide M'~~ ~~on P. ante the Pub may be asked to submit suitable draft notification in the matter. A draft memo is put up below for approval.~~ The order at (E) is only an amendment to the Madras Foodgrains (Movement Control) Order, 1947. As it seems necessary to extend the Madras Foodgrains (Movement Control) Order, 1947 in respect of all foodgrains, there is no ~~may see~~ point in issuing a notification extending the Movement Control Order only in respect of gram. It is for orders whether the Madras Foodgrains (Movement Control)

To A.S

Notes of pp 1-3 above may be perused. The point for consideration is whether the Madras Foodgrains (movement) Control Order, 1947 should be extended to Sandur (the merged State of) specifically. It is no doubt true that the Legal Dept have agreed with the views of Rule. (Pol.) that the Control Order banning the transport of grain and its products outside Madras State except under permits should be specifically extended to the merged State of Sandur; and consequently the Madras Foodgrains (movement) Control Order, 1947 should be so extended. It may, however, be observed in this connection that Legal Dept have pointed out (in another connection) that the Central Act XXIV of 1946 applies to the merged States of Banganapalli, Pudukottai and Sandur by virtue of the merged States (Laws) Act 1950. It would therefore seem to mean that no specific extension of Control Orders as necessary as they have been issued only under the Central Act XXIV of 1946. It has also been informally ascertained from Legal that the position stated above is correct and

The question may be re-examined by 'B' Section in consultation with Legal. For orders. (A copy of the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1950 could not be obtained from the Secretariat Library, as no copies have been received by it for from Legal).

W.r.t. 'B' on p.3 above, it is observed that the Madras Foodgrains (Movement) Control Order, 1947 has already been extended to the merged States of Banganapalli and Pudukkottai in G.O. Ms. No 600, Food, dt. 5.7.48. ↳ 21c ante.

In the circumstances stated above, Legal may advise whether it is necessary to extend the Madras Foodgrains (Movement Control) Order, 1947 to Sandur State. If such action is not necessary the question of extending the order at (E) to Sandur does not arise.

Legal Dept.
